Nov. 8th 1953 FLOWER TIME

Dear Mrs. Bourke & Monkeys

for the Mercy's Newspapers & also for the new coin of Queen Elizabeth. It looks like our dinner or 10 cent pieces, so I'll put it away for safe keeping. I am not much of a correspondent so I'm sure you're not the few P.C's I'll send one in awhile. I always write your address clearly. Weather is wet, cold, our usual autumn and winter is in the offing. I've been very busy helping a neighbor who has been confined to bed now for 14 months - a stroke & quite helpless. Husband in hospital and only a son to look after her. He's had to get a part time job as they have come to the end of their finances. But she is a brave woman, thanking you again
M. E. Ransom
